

IELTS Writing Task 5

The Accident

In this writing task you are asked to write a short report for a newspaper. You work for a local newspaper as a reporter. This morning you were called out to an accident on the main road out of your town. When you arrived you quickly got out your camera, pad and pen and began to take notes. When you arrived back at work your boss told you that the story needs to be ready in an hour so it can go out in tonight's addition of the paper.

Write a 250 word article about the accident. What happened, where it happened, the time and the people involved.

The people involved:

- The rider
- The cars
- The police
- The ambulance
- Any witnesses

You have 40 minutes to finish the article.

Check your spelling, grammar, punctuation and syntax.

Open a word document and save and send to me when completed.