IELTS Writing Practice

Using specific words and concepts in your writing (PART 2).

EXPRESSING YOUR OPINIONS

For RODRIGO MASTINI

Today we are going to do a writing exercise that must include YOUR EXPRESSED OPINIONS. These are words that are important for an IELTS examiner to find in your writing exam.

You Opinions... I think, I believe, In my view

In this exercise I want you to stress your opinions using terms such as... I THINK, I BELIEVE, IN MY VIEW, IT IS BELIEVED and IT IS THOUGHT AND OTHERS YOU CAN FIND ON GOOGLE.

The subject is...

Some scientists think that there are intelligent life forms on other planets and messages should be sent out into space to try and contact them. Other scientists think its a bad idea and it would be dangerous.
Discuss both views and give reasons why.

Paragraphs

There should be an introduction, a conclusion and a main body. The main body should be three paragraphs. So 5 paragraphs. There should be about 250 words.

Time allowed 40 minutes.
