

Too Much Food

A. Reading

Kevin went to a restaurant last night. The food was really delicious, and Kevin ate way too much. He ate too much soup as an appetiser. The seafood was very good, so Kevin ate too much fish and too many mussels. He also ate too many vegetables and too many potatoes. He ordered too much salad and put way too much dressing on it. After his meal, he ordered way too much dessert. He ate too much cake and too many cookies. He also drank so much coffee that he couldn't sleep that night. The next morning, he had a stomachache from eating so much food.

The next time Kevin goes to a restaurant, he will order fewer dishes. He will eat less fish and fewer mussels. He will eat fewer vegetables and less salad. He will also eat less cake and fewer cookies. He will be sure to drink less coffee.

Jonah's New School

A. Reading

Jonah recently moved to a new school. He likes it better than his old school. In fact, it's the best school he's ever been to. The teachers are the nicest and most helpful he's ever had. The classrooms are the biggest and cleanest he's ever seen. Every classroom has at least three computers in it. The library is also really amazing! There are tons of great books, magazines, and films. The library has the most comfortable chairs that students can sit on while they read. The cafeteria food is the most delicious he's ever eaten. The spaghetti is Jonah's favourite dish. The students at his new school are the friendliest he's ever met. Jonah has already made many new friends. His new school is also very well known for high achievement. The athletics team is the fastest in the city, and they have won many competitions. The school band is the most talented in the city. They were even invited to play with the city orchestra. Jonah's favourite thing about his new school is the big auditorium, where the students can watch plays and listen to concerts. Last week, they watched the funniest play Jonah had ever seen. Jonah is so happy he moved to this school.
